Summer Learning Guide Year 12

Overview and Contents

This guide has been produced to support Year 12 students with their preparations for Year 13 study in 2022-2023. You should complete the activities as directed to you by your teachers in your end of term reports – if you are 'Working At' in a subject, you should complete those activities, for example. If you are a new student or the subject will be new to you next year, you should complete any of the activities you feel less confident about.

Please click on the links below to take you through to a combination of lesson and revision activities that can be completed for each subject during the Summer break. For each subject, there are also some suggestions of activities you can complete just for fun!

Securing your Learning

If your current working level in this subject is between Grade 1 and Grade 5, you should complete the activities as described in the table below. If your current working level is Grade 6 or better, you should identify topics from the table you feel less confident about and complete the relevant activities.

Topic	Curriculum Expectation Success Criteria	Activities
Securing basic skills	AO1	Basic skills
Terminology	AO2	Terminology
Mood, voice, tone, narrator	AO2	Mood etc
Analysis - Poetry	AO2	Analysis
Understanding Form	AO2	Form
Understanding Structure	AO2	Structure Structure 2 Structure 3 Structure 4
Coherence	AO3	Coherence
Essay writing	AO3	Essays
Quoting	AO1	Quoting
Authorial technique	AO2	Technique
Analysis	AO2 / 3	Analysis Analysis 2
Context	AO1	Context

Deepening your Learning

The activities below have been designed to enhance your learning from this year. If your current working level is Grade 6 or above, you should aim to complete these activities to stretch you further; if your current working level is between Grade 1 and Grade 5, you might choose to complete some of the activities below once you have completed all of the ‘Securing your learning’ tasks.

Topic	Working Above Expectation Success Criteria	Activities
Writing an essay	AO3	Essay writing
Analysing poetry	AO2	Analysis
Analysing prose	AO2	Analysis
Analysing Drama	AO2	Analysis

Enrichment

The following activities have been designed to provide students with the opportunity to participate in activities linked to this subject but are outside of the curriculum requirements; these are activities that are fun and are designed to enhance learning for learning’s sake!

- Continue to read the novels you feel might be appropriate for your Coursework
- Once you have decided on a novel, try reading another novel by the same author to help you gain further understanding of the author, their style, the context in which they wrote.
- Read around what literary critics have said about your novel, how the novel was received by readers when it was published and anything the author might have said about the novel since it was published.
- Continue to explore poets that you feel might be appropriate for your poetry coursework

- Once you have a feel for your poet, read other poems by that poet to get a sense of style, context and themes.
- Read around what literary critics have said about your poems / poet, how the poetry was received by readers when it was published and anything the poet might have said about their poetry since it was published.
- All of the above will be important in the lead-up to writing your coursework

Microscopy and Magnification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can decipher the differences between Image size, Actual size and magnification. 	Magnification Try to solve as many as possible!
Beyond Potometer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can estimate the rate of transpiration from the plant cutting. 	Attached worksheet at the end of the page. Solve the student sheet
Osmosis	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can compare the effect of osmosis on plants and animal cell solutions. 	Look for the attachment document at the end of the page. Plant and Animal cell solutions
Recording Variation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can plan an investigation of the variables that might affect the growth of Plants. 	Plan the investigation from the provided data: Look for the attachment at the end of the page. Variation in Ivy Plants
Transport in Plants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can observe and interpret on microscopic carnations of Vascular bundle in Plants. 	Terrific Tomatoes and their Trichomes

Enrichment

The following activities have been designed to provide students with the opportunity to participate in activities linked to this subject but are outside of the curriculum requirements; these are activities that are fun and are designed to enhance learning for learning's sake!

- Research or provide data from the MMR and autism research of Andrew Wakefield and Hideo Honda (and data on the impact on vaccination rates in the UK) (Use this resource)
- Worth a Read! HIV evolves to be less deadly!
- Create a Mind map on any unit (Unit 1/Unit 2) of your choice covering how they are linked with one another.
- Make your own edible DNA double helix out of sweets (Refer for help).
- Go to and join the Biology Forum to give your inputs on Recent trends in Biology.

- Reading "SHOE DOG", a book by Phill Knight the owner of NIKE. SHOE DOG provides an unvarnished story of how Phil Knight started Nike and turned it into a £30 billion global company.
- Reading "How Obsessive Leaders Achieve the Extraordinary". What makes great leaders like Jeff Bezos and Elon Musk extraordinary? This book shows leaders and aspiring leaders how obsession can fuel the most incredible success. Advances in any endeavour almost always depend on a small group of individuals who are completely consumed by the goal they're pursuing. When these leaders and their teams are successful, everyone benefits from their singular focus and relentless drive.
- Make a virtual Scrap Book. Go into almost any supermarket and you are likely to find products made by Proctor & Gamble and Unilever. Both companies have a huge variety of product categories. Collect as many images as possible of products that are manufactured by Unilever and Proctor & Gamble. Then comment which do you think is bigger of the two.
- Watch The Founder, we learn the incredible true story of struggling salesman Ray Kroc, whose fateful encounter with the McDonald brothers changed his life -- and the way we eat food in America.
- Watch The Wall Street. A Classic. It unravels a story through the eyes of Bud Fox, an ambitious stockbroker who navigates the economic rollercoaster of Wall Street, adopting the "greed is good" mantra. This movie is a window into corporate finance, portfolio management, investment law principles and capital markets.

The following activities have been designed to provide students with the opportunity to participate in activities linked to this subject but are outside of the curriculum requirements; these are activities that are fun and are designed to enhance learning for learning’s sake!

- Watch “Of Two Minds”

Of Two Minds is an award-winning feature documentary that explores the lives, struggles and successes of three unique and captivating people living with bipolar disorder in America today. It provides an intimate, sometimes painful look at those who live in the shadows of this disorder, showing what it’s like to live every day with a mood that swings to the highest highs and the lowest lows.

- Watch “Light in the Darkness”

It is a documentary dedicated to illuminating Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder. By combining the expertise of neurologists, psychologists, and other experts, with the experiences of survivors and their families, this documentary reintroduces PTSD to the (inter)national conversation at a time when trauma and mental health are meant to take centre stage.
